please do not forget to hug another senior today.

The Search is on for LSCI Volunteers - Third and Final Announcement

If you have some time to spare and some skills to offer, please see or contact Gladys at the Senior Center or call her at 432-4822. Thank you for your consideration.

Volunteers are needed to assist in the business operation of LSCI. If you have computer skills and administrative experience, would you be willing to volunteer? Any computer work can be done in the leisure of your home.

All members are reminded that the Londonderry Senior Citizens, Inc. (LSCI) is a non-profit and tax exempt business. As you come into the Senior Center for programs, activities, events or just to socialize, the majority of you do not think of the business side of our organization nor what it takes to operate LSCI behind the scenes.

LSCI has been in existence for 12 great years. But, if we want our organization to continue to exist, there must be continuing leadership and business accountability to operate it in accordance with federal and state laws.

Early Announcement on LSCI's Tenth Holiday Fair on October 18th

Don't forget to tell your family, friends and neighbors about LSCI's 10th Holiday Fair to be held at the Senior Center on Saturday, October 18th from 9:00am to 3:00pm.

The Holiday Fair volunteer sign up book will be located at the Receptionist Desk on September 8th. As in the past, we will need the help of our members in setting up the hall on Friday before the Fair as well as volunteering at one of the work stations at different time slots during the day of the Fair.

LSCI will again have a Raffle table consisting 16 beautiful Theme Baskets, a wonderful Luncheon, Cookie Walk with a variety of cookies for your selection, Craft Tables and White Elephant Tables.

White Elephant table donations for LSCI's Holiday Fair will be accepted as early as September 2nd. Now is the time to clean out and put aside some unwanted items from your home which are clean and usable to someone else. Please see Gladys when you are ready to donate any items.
